ENDOWMENT

MURRAY STATE UNIVERSITY

Growing your endowment fund increases your impact over time and is easily done by making annual investments and designating them to the fund's principal balance.

Year	Investment	Total
2015	$10,000	$10,000
2016	$10,000	$20,000
2017	$10,000	$30,000
2018	$10,000	$40,000

Example of how an endowment fund grows over time with annual investments of $10,000 per year.

Endowment funds are a critical part of a university's financial strategy. They provide a steady stream of income that can be used to support a wide range of programs and services. By making annual investments and designating them to the fund's principal balance, you can help ensure that your university has the resources it needs to continue to grow and thrive.

1922 was a year of significant change for the university. The year began with a major fire that destroyed the main building, but the university quickly rebuilt and emerged stronger than ever. The year also saw the founding of the first student organization, the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, and the establishment of the first varsity sports teams.

The year 1922 was a year of great achievement and progress. The university's reputation grew, and it became a leading center of learning and research. The year also saw the birth of many of the traditions and customs that are still celebrated today.
